Townhouse Qormi

€795,000

 Qormi, Central

Located in the heart of Qormi, this well-structured townhouse offers a practical layout spread across multiple levels, presenting an excellent opportunity for both end-users and investors.

At ground floor level, the property welcomes you with an entrance hall leading to a bedroom, a central courtyard providing natural light and ventilation, a separate kitchen, and a convenient guest WC. The layout is both functional and traditional, ideal for comfortable day-to-day living.

The first floor comprises a hall, three bedrooms, and a bathroom/shower room, along with a closed balcony, offering additional internal space and flexibility for reconfiguration if desired.

At roof level, one finds a washroom and full roof area, ideal for outdoor entertaining, relaxation, or further development potential, subject to planning.

This property benefits from a solid structure, good distribution of space, and excellent potential to be modernised
